

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boileau votes Aye.

Has every delegate voted?

Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 61 votes in the affirmative and 60 in the negative, the motion carries. The amendment is adopted.

So that the pages may make a distribution, the Chair would like to take an opportunity to read across the desk another memorandum, Mr. Clerk. Committee Memorandum GP-13; the Clerk will read the memorandum.

READING CLERK, Committee Memorandum GP-13 by the Committee on General Provisions, Elroy G. Boyer, Chairman, in support of Committee Recommendation No. GP-13: While the schedule of transitional provisions and the schedule of legislation are both intended to implement the body of the new constitution, it is essential to clearly distinguish between the two schedules.

THE PRESIDENT: Will the pages distribute GP-13 and the Committee Memorandum GP-13.

As I am sure you have observed from examining the Committee Recommendation GP-13, it is the longest committee recommendation thus far received. I call to your attention that it is merely the schedule of transitional provisions. It is not the whole new constitution. This is the reason, or one of the reasons at least, why it is so desirable that a schedule such as this be appended as a schedule and not made a part of the constitution itself.

Notwithstanding the fact that we are sitting late this evening and we will start the session at ten o'clock tomorrow morning, I urge you at whatever opportunity you have in the meantime, including at the breakfast table, to read over the committee recommendation not so that you will necessarily thoroughly understand it, but so that you will understand its format and be able to follow the discussion when it is explained tomorrow.

The Chair does intend that there be a full explanation of the committee recommendation. If you will take the memorandum and the recommendation and review the two together side by side, I think you will find it is not as formidable a task as it appears to be.

There are a number of other amendments to section 3.23, some of which the Chair believes are of such a character as will require, the sponsors desire, extensive debate.

I think the hour is too late to continue with that kind of debate at this time, and the Chair would, therefore, be disposed to suspend consideration of this committee recommendation at this time and in a few moments to adjourn.

Are there any announcements to be made by Committee Chairmen?

Delegate Dulany.

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, I would like to announce a meeting of the Committee on Public Information at 9:30 A.M. tomorrow morning.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by Committee Chairmen?

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: There will be a meeting of the Committee on Style at a quarter of ten tomorrow morning for a very brief meeting.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen?

(There was no response.)

Are there any other announcements by other delegates?

(There was no response.)

Any delegates present now not present earlier may indicate their presence on supplemental roll call. The Clerk will record the supplemental roll call.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers, and let me remind you that there will be a session tomorrow morning, tomorrow afternoon, and tomorrow night.

Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, there will be a meeting of the Committee on Calendar and Agenda tomorrow morning at room H-208. I move that we adjourn until tomorrow at 10:00 A.M.

(Whereupon, the motion was seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: All those in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 11:20 P.M., the Convention was adjourned to reconvene at 10:00 A.M. on Wednesday, January 3, 1968.)
